Information and Support for Parents and Carers in Plymouth

• Impartial • Confidential • Free

• Impartial • Confidential • Free

Revised 2004

Who are we?

We are a team of paid staff and trained volunteers who offer impartial and accurate information and support for parents/carers

We work closely with Plymouth City Council's education service, other agencies and the voluntary sector

We support parents and carers who have concerns about their child's education and /or development including children with additional or special educational needs

What are our aims?

- To give you impartial and accurate information and support
- To help you to make decisions about your child's education
- To encourage good working relationships between you, your child's school, Plymouth City Council's education service and other agencies
- To support schools and other agencies in continuing to develop good working practices with parents/carers

We can provide information and support about:

- Additional or special educational needs
- Children of pre-school age
- School admissions
- Exclusions from school
- Disability living allowance
- Disagreement Resolution Service
- The range of services to support parents/carers
- Leaving school

We also provide:

- A resource base of books, videos and leaflets etc. (some available in other languages) for parent and professional use
- A directory of services for parents and carers in Plymouth
